

2010 ART COMPETITION GUIDELINES

General Guidelines

- Competition is open to high school students only. Exceptions will be made for schools that have 7th through 12th grades in one building.
- In order to allow an artwork to hang in the Cannon Tunnel of the U.S. Capitol, the following restrictions are enforced:
 - Artwork must conform to these restrictions:
 - All artwork must be two-dimensional
 - Each piece can be no larger than 28"x28"x4" (28 inches high, 28 inches wide and 4 inches deep) including the frame. Artwork cannot weigh more than 15 lbs.
 - Entry must be original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws. Any entry which has been reproduced from an existing photo (not the student's own), painting, graphic, advertisement, or any other work produced by another person is a violation of the competition rules and will not be accepted. Work entered must be in the original medium (that is, not a scanned reproduction of a painting or drawing).
- Artwork will hang in the Capitol for the entire year of the exhibition and cannot be returned to students earlier. Students, therefore, should submit artwork they will not need for other purposes.
- Artwork categories are as follows:
 - Paintings: oil, acrylics, watercolor, etc.
 - Drawings: pastels, colored pencil, pencil, charcoal, ink, markers
 - Collage: must be two dimensional
 - Prints: lithographs, silkscreen, block prints
 - Mixed media: use of more than two mediums such as pencil, ink, etc.
 - Computer generated art
 - Photography
- A TYPED copy of the Student Release form, signed by both the teacher and student, must be attached to the artwork to certify the originality of the piece. Guardian must also sign release.
- The final decision regarding the suitability of all artwork for the 2010 Congressional Art Competition exhibition in the Capitol will be made by a panel of qualified persons chaired by the Architect of the Capitol. Artwork must adhere to the policy of the House Office Building Commission. In accordance with this policy, exhibits depicting subjects of contemporary political controversy or a sensationalistic or gruesome in nature are not allowed. It is necessary that all artwork be reviewed by the panel chaired by the Architect of the Capitol and any portion not in consonance with the Commission's policy will be omitted from the exhibit.
